

Job Vacancy: Shift Leader - Chemist
Job Status: Full-Time
Company: Rar Resin
Location: Lebanon
Website: www.rarresin.com

DETAILED JOB DESCRIPTION:

- Ensuring the set up and operation of equipment which blends, mixes, polymerizes, packages, and transports the liquid or dry chemicals that comprise our finished products
- Directs production personnel to ensure the highest quality product in the most time efficient manner to meet our customer's needs
- Demonstrates team work in all phases of operation
- Verify all controls are functioning correctly and operate all machinery to mix, discharge, and handle materials according to operating procedures
- Controls reaction vessels to polymerize raw materials to produce finished resins
- Monitors production equipment to ensure safe and efficient operation. Troubleshoots equipment and processing issues
- Perform quality audits and test to ensure the products conform to established standards
- Refers issues / problems to Technical Supervisor for disposition
- Documents work completed as required including logs, data reports, procedures, etc.
- Participates and leads training, and continual process improvement activities
- Ensures good housekeeping standards are maintained
- Follows all rules, laws and procedures related to the adopted internal regulations

INTERPERSONAL SKILLS:

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Possess credibility in the presence of labors and clients when needed
- Manage challenging situations and recommend effective solutions to problems
- Think in terms of business management including demonstrating cost effective ways to increase productivity, manage expenses

JOB REQUIREMENTS:

BS in Chemistry or Chemical Engineering.

Have at least 0-1 year of experience, preferably within a Resin Factory/chemical industry